

Resources for Responding Parties

What information will I receive about the complaint?

If I am a student, will my professors know about the complaint?

Your instructors will only learn about your complaint if their participation is absolutely necessary in the investigation and resolution process. The Title IX office will make every effort to protect your privacy. For example, often complainants request interim academic